5. Field Work Assistance

6. Project Assistance to final year students etc.

At present the alumni association does not contribute financially to the development of the institute; however, it helps in several support services by way of Training and placement, student projects and internship, expert and guest lectures, industrial visits and participation in different student clubs and social activities. Apart from above non-financial agenda, during the recent alumni meet it has also been decided to assist and help the institute by means of financial inclusion as per willingness of individuals and to form registered alumni association of the institute in coming days.
